MEDIA ADVISORY

Release of Spanish Version of Doing Business in Washington, DC guide

Washington, DC- On Tuesday, October 4, 2005, the Washington, DC Marketing Center in conjunction with the Greater Washington Ibero American Chamber of Commerce, will release, Haciendo Negocios en Washington, DC, the Spanish version of the Doing Business in Washington, DC guide at a joint press conference at the Center's offices at 1495 F St. NW.

The Spanish version of the guide serves as a complete reference tool for the Spanish-speaking business owners and entrepreneurs on doing business in the District. With information on business registration, financing, taxes, incentives, insurance and doing business with Government, the guide has been customized to include several listings of resource centers that cater to Spanish speaking business owners and leaders. Publishing the guide in Spanish is the beginning of a partnership between the DC Marketing Center and the Ibero American Chamber of Commerce to bring more business information to DC's Spanish-speaking community.

The English version of the guide is currently available for download from the Marketing Center's website. Hard copies can be picked up at the Center at 1495 F St. NW.
